Updating regulations for human subjects research
The new Common Rule has arrived!
What changes are coming?

Thursday
April 20
12 - 1 pm
Brinkhous-Bullitt 219
TraCS Conference Room

The “Common Rule” regulations that govern human subjects research have been revised. This seminar will offer a behind-the-scenes look at the 6-year rulemaking process, and review the major changes that are coming for IRBs, investigators, and their institutions.

Dan Nelson
Director, Human Research Protocol Office, NHEERL, EPA

sponsored by the UNC Center for Bioethics
the North Carolina Translational & Clinical Sciences Institute and the UNC Office of Human Research Ethics