12:00pm – 1:00pm Thursday, February 4, 2016 MacNider Hall 321

Lunch will be provided for first 50 guests

All are welcome to attend this panel discussion of how ethical and legal issues arise in the care of the prisoner-patient and the practical concerns of providing clinical care to patients whose admissions are complicated by their prisoner status.

Jointly sponsored by the UNC Center for Bioethics and the UNC Hospital Ethics Committee, Clinical Ethics Grand Rounds offers an innovative and interactive forum for engaging with ethical, legal, and policy issues of particular salience to patient care within the hospital. There are no commercial support or conflicts of interest to report.
