

RESEARCH ETHICS GRAND ROUNDS

Ethical and Regulatory Issues in “E-consent” to Clinical Research

Thursday February 16
12 - 1 pm
Brinkhous-Bullitt 219
TraCS Conference Room

John WilBanks

Chief Commons Officer Sage Bionetworks

As translational researchers turn to electronic information sources for clinical research recruitment, they are increasingly using on-line communication tools to educate potential participants and document their consent. How can we prevent this from reducing informed consent to the equivalent of a software licensing acceptance check box?

sponsored by the UNC Center for Bioethics
the North Carolina Translational & Clinical Sciences Institute and the UNC Office of Human Research Ethics